SENATE

A message was received from the House announcing the action of that body on the bill of the Senate to provide a code of laws for the District of Columbia.

The House resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to withhold the issue of certain cotton claims, pending action of the Court of Claims until further ordered by Congress, was taken up and after brief consideration the Senate went into Executive session.

Subsequently the joint resolution for the settlement of the claims of citizens of the United States against the Government of Mexico, between Mexico and China, for the introduction of additional coolie emigrants without restriction, was read.

Mr. HENDERSON introduced a joint resolution placing the Missouri militia on an equal footing with other troops as to bounty, &c. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. SUMNER, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a joint resolution authorizing a system of ocean mail service, and directing the President to communicate a copy of the resolution to the Government of Turkey. Passed.

The CHAIR submitted a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, in response to a resolution requiring whether any legislation was necessary to expend in the payment of bounties the moneys in the hands of the Treasurer.

The House amendment to the Senate bill further to secure equal rights in the District of Columbia, was concurred in with an amendment authorizing the Orphans' Court to draw grand and petit jurors for the June term of that Court.

After a recess Mr. SUMNER introduced a bill to strike out the words from white persons, in the naturalization laws of the United States, wherever they occur therein. Mr. Sumner stated that he received a letter from Norfolk, saying that a number of foreign-born colored persons, who could not be naturalized under the laws as they stand.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved to take up the bill reported from the Committee on Finance, providing for the refunding of certain moneys paid into the Treasury by the Receiver of Public Moneys, Edward S. Holloway, late of Nebraska City, Otoe County, Iowa. Passed.

Mr. FESSENDEN introduced a bill to amend the act establishing the Department of the Interior. Referred.

Among the executive papers was a message from the President, in response to a resolution of inquiry, relative to the appointment of Brigadier-General Frank P. Blair, Jr., to be Major-General by brevet. Also, a message from the President, in response to a resolution of inquiry, relative to the appointment of James D. Wilks, Pulaski County, Ark.
